CONFESSING

CALL TO CONFESSION

Let us confess to God and before one another our sins, and especially our failure to truly open ourselves to God’s presence and wisdom in our worship.

GENERAL CONFESSION

We confess, O God that we are not ready to come down from the Christmas “high.” Somehow, right after Christmas Day, we feel a letdown. We don’t want that “high” to be over. We want to feel the “peace on earth” feeling, but we let it go. We push it aside when we begin our journey of complaining and blaming others for everything that is going wrong. We ignore the blessing of the gift when we refuse to help those in need. Shake us up, Lord! Get us ready to be people of compassion and hope. Wake us up, Lord! Help us see the beauty and possibilities of peace around us. Fill us up, Lord! Fill us to overflowing with joy. Let our words, our thoughts, and our actions speak of your love for us. In Jesus’ Name, we pray. AMEN.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Behold! God has given God’s Son that we might have life—new, vital, sparkling. Feel the wondrous power and love of God in your heart this day and know that God is with you always. Amen.

RESPONDING

INVITATION TO THE OFFERING

When the time came to dedicate their son to the Lord, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple in thanksgiving and praise. In honor of the ancient tradition, we come this day to dedicate our lives and these, our humble gifts, to God in thanksgiving and praise.

THE LORD'S OFFERING

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Gracious God, thank you for the gifts of Christmas that bless us throughout the year. As we offer you our offering in gratitude and praise, we dedicate our labor, our industry, and our very lives to the building of your kingdom. May our gifts go forth to a world in need, as signs of your redemption and your hope. May we shine with your glory, that others may discover your saving love. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen

SENDING
